6. Amendment to the Articles of Association with immediate effect

Proposed resolution:

1° The text of Article 48: Appointment of liquidators is replaced by the following text:

- “48.1. If no liquidators are appointed, the directors who are in office at the time of the dissolution will be the liquidators by operation of law.
- 48.2. When a legal person is appointed as liquidator, the natural person representing him in the liquidation must be designated in the resolution appointing the liquidator. Any change in this designation is to be made public in the annexes to the Belgian Official Gazette
- 48.3. The liquidators only start office after the Commercial Court has confirmed their appointment decided by the general shareholders’ meeting in accordance with the provisions of the Belgian Company Code.
- 48.4. The general shareholders’ meeting of the dissolved company can at any time by simple majority appoint and dismiss one or more liquidators. It decides whether the liquidators, if there are more, can represent the company alone, jointly or as a collective body.”

2° The text of Article 49: Powers of the liquidators is adapted to the legislation in force and replaced by the following text:

- “49.1. The liquidators are authorized to carry out all transactions mentioned in Articles 186, 187 and 188 of the Belgian Company Code, without prior authorization of the general meeting, unless the general meeting decides otherwise by simple majority.
- 49.2. Between the sixth and twelfth month of the first liquidation year, the liquidators submit a detailed statement of the status of the liquidation to the clerk of the Commercial Court in accordance with the provisions of the Belgian Company Code. From the second year of the liquidation onwards, such a detailed statement only has to be submitted yearly.

- 49.3. Every year the liquidators present the results of the liquidation to the annual general meeting of the company, stating the reasons for the non-completion of the liquidation. Every year they also make the financial statements.
- 49.4. The financial statements are published in compliance with the legal requirements.”

7. Conditional amendment to the Articles of Association – Authorization

Proposed Resolution:

Resolution to implement the following amendments to the articles of association, subject to and as of the entry into force of the new legislation in Belgium, in such form as the Law of 20 December 2010 on the exercise of certain rights of shareholders of listed companies, the case being as amended, and whereby each member of the board of directors of the Company will be authorized, as soon as reasonably and practically possible after the entry into force of these amendments, to make the steps and to fulfil the formalities in order to have these amendments to the articles of association recorded before a notary:

1° The text of Article 35: Notices convening shareholders’ meetings is replaced as follows:

“The notices are made in accordance with applicable legal provisions. The notice will contain the information required by applicable legislation.

On the day of publication the notice is also published on the website of the company, along with all particulars prescribed by applicable legislation.

The holders of registered shares, the directors and auditors are called to the general meeting by ordinary mail, in accordance with the legal requirements then in force and within the terms prescribed by law, unless they have agreed individually, expressly and in writing to receive the notice through other means of communication.

The notice mentions the record date, as well as the manner in which the shareholders can be registered.

The agenda for a general meeting may be supplemented in accordance with the legal requirements then in force. Where appropriate there will be further action according to legislation then in force relating to notification, proxies, voting forms, voting rights and voting instructions, and so on.”

2° The title and text of Article 36: Notification is replaced as follows:

“Article 36: Notification – Record date

“36.1. The right to participate in a general meeting and to exercise voting rights is only granted on the basis of the recording of shares in the name of the shareholder, on the fourteenth (14th) day before the general meeting at midnight (24:00 hours) (“the record date”), either

- i) by their record in the register of registered shares of the company
- ii) by their record in the accounts of a acknowledged account holder or clearing agent

The account holder or clearing agent delivers a certificate to the shareholder evidencing the amount of shares for which the shareholder, on the record date, has indicated his intention to participate in the general meeting.

36.2. Ultimately on the sixth (6th) day before the meeting, the shareholder informs the company or the person appointed thereto by the company of his intention to participate in the meeting.

36.3. In a special register designated by the board of directors is recorded for each shareholder who has expressed the intention to participate in the general meeting:

- a. the name, and the address (or the registered office)
- b. the number of shares possessed on the record date and for which he has expressed the intention to participate in the general meeting
- c. a description of the documents evidencing that he was in possession of the shares on the record date.

36.4. Subject to additional provisions in these articles of association, the holders of other securities issued by the Company (including holders of warrants and bonds issued by the Company) who have the right to participate in the general meeting mutatis mutandis have to fulfill the same formalities. In accordance with Article 537 of the Belgian Company Code, the holders of warrants and bonds issued by the Company may attend the general meeting, but only with an advisory vote.

36.5. Attendance List

Prior to participating in the meeting the shareholders or their proxy holders must sign the attendance list, indicating:

- a. the identity of the shareholder
- b. if applicable, the identity of the proxy holder, and
- c. the number of shares they represent

At the opening of the meeting the bureau of the meeting completes the attendance list with details of the persons attending the general meeting from a distance in accordance with Article 37.2.

3° The title and text of Article 37: Representation of Shareholders is replaced as follows:
"Article 37: Representation of Shareholders – Remote Participation:

37.1. Proxies and electronic forms

- a. Each shareholder may be represented at the meeting by a proxy holder to whom a written proxy was granted, or can vote through an electronic form as provided for in the relevant legislation in force. Such proxies or forms have to bear the signature of the principal (which can be an electronic signature as referred to in Article 1322, paragraph 2 of the Civil Code or as otherwise permitted by applicable legislation) and at least mention:

- 1° the complete and correct identity of the shareholder, including residence address or registered office
- 2° the number of shares for which the shareholder participates in the deliberations and voting
- 3° the form of the shares
- 4° the agenda of the meeting, including the proposed resolutions;
- 5° the positive or negative way of voting or the abstention regarding each proposed resolution

A shareholder can appoint a separate proxy holder for

- every form of shares that he owns
- for each of his securities accounts, if he owns shares of the company which are deposited on more than one securities account.

- b. Assembled proxies, proxies granted by substitution, or proxies granted by financial institutions, trusts, fund managers or account holders in the name and on behalf of several shareholders, have to contain the information stated above for each individual shareholder in whose name and on whose behalf they participate in the general meeting.

- c. In accordance with the applicable statutory provisions, the signed and dated proxy has to be sent to the registered office or to a place specified in the notice convening the meeting, by mail, fax, e-mail or other means mentioned in article 2281 of the Civil Code.

For notary deeds the original signed proxy is required.

- d. The board of directors can determine the text of these proxies and demand that the proxies, or electronic forms referred to in 37.1 above, be deposited at the registered office of the company at the latest in the course of the sixth (6th) calendar day before the date of the meeting.

- e. Legal persons are represented by the body charged with the representation according to their articles of association, or by a person, shareholder or not, to whom a proxy has been granted in accordance with the provisions of this article.

37.2. Remote participation

- a. The board of directors can allow the holders of securities that entitle to voting rights in the general meeting, and who are entitled to participate in the meeting in accordance with the provisions of Article 36 of these articles of association, to participate in the meeting from a distance by a means of communication made available by the company. Securities holders who, the case being, use this option, are considered to be present at the place where the meeting is held.

Where applicable, it will be announced on the website of the company, together with the notice convening the general meeting, how the company intends to control and guarantee the capacity and identity of the holders of securities participating in the meeting from a distance based on the electronic communication means used and how their safety will be ensured.

- b. Without prejudice to any restriction imposed by law the electronic means of communication has to enable the securities holder participating in the meeting from a distance to at least directly, simultaneously and continuously
 - * take note of the discussions at the meeting;
 - * participate in the discussions
 - * ask questions
 - * exercise the voting right with respect to all items on which the meeting has to resolve, and this insofar voting rights are attributed to the securities for which the holder thereof participates in the meeting from a distance.

- c. The minutes of the general meeting mention the technical problems and incidents that prevented or disrupted the participation by electronic means in the general meeting and/or voting."

4° In Article 39: Adjournment of the meeting, the words "three weeks" in the first and second paragraph are replaced by "five weeks".

5° In Article 40: Decisions on matters not on the agenda - Amendments, the following paragraph is added: "In accordance with applicable laws, shareholders can have items put on the agenda of the general meeting and submit resolution proposals."

6° In Article 43: Minutes – the first sentence is replaced by the following text: Minutes are made of each general meeting, containing at least the information required by relevant legislation in force, and to which the attendance list, and as the case may be, the reports, proxies or written voting forms will be attached."

7° The last paragraph of Article 44: Fiscal Year – Financial Statements is replaced by the following paragraph:

"Where appropriate and applicable, the board of directors submits, at least within the term provided by law, the documents with the annual report to the auditors who have to draw up the report required by law."
